

Hello, my husband and I own 55 acre Westwind Farm with 8 acres of organic soil for row crops and two small orchards. It's in a conservation easement with the North Olympic land trust. We live here on the farm which is 12 miles west of Port Angeles Washington. We want to transition the land to younger farmers. A long-term lease option is available. The land is not for sale. Lots of infrastructure has been developed.

Email Jane and Peter at Janevavan@gmail.com
